Questions in completing your personal statement as part of the application process

The following questions are designed to assist the faculty and staff to get to know you in terms of background, experience, a call to this ministry, and your expectations as they relate to this program.

1. How would you describe your understanding of spiritual direction?
2. Do you have, or have you ever had, a spiritual director. If so, for how long? What has been your experience and what has been most helpful to you in this relationship? (It will be expected that you be in direction during the training and that you have acquired a director as you begin. Call for suggestions of referral if need be.)
3. Have you ever had any spiritual formation or spiritual direction training? If so, please describe. (The expectation is that prior to the training you will begin spiritual direction yourself, if you have not already done so.)
4. Do you have any theological training (i.e. seminary, bible school, courses, workshops)? Please be specific.
5. How/where did you find out about this program in spiritual formation and direction?
6. What do you hope to receive from this program?
7. Besides the goal of becoming a spiritual director, what is going on internally within you that is leading you to seek out spiritual formation and direction training?

8. If you are married, describe your spouse's response to your desire to be in this program.

9. Describe your spiritual journey and your relationship with God at this time.

10. What do you see as your strengths? Weaknesses?

11. Describe any steps you have taken or experiences you explore (i.e. counseling, spiritual direction, journaling, group work, etc.) to pursue emotional health and growth.

12. We believe it is God's desire that individuals not only grow in experiential knowledge of God but also in experiential knowledge of self. Therefore, one main focus of this program will to take an in-depth and very honest look at yourself and your life – your relationship with God, your relationship with others, your giftings, strengths, weaknesses, woundings, addictions, etc.
What is your response within as you read the above statement about this program?

13. What else would you like us to know or would you like to share about yourself?

14. What questions do you have at this time?
